MISSION OF THE COLORADO DOMINICAN VOCATION FOUNDATION

We believe that artists are inspired by the divine and that they have a special vocation to bring beauty into the world and thereby promote the good. Through the beauty of art, the Colorado Dominican Vocation Foundation, a non-profit 501 (c)(3) organization known as Windows to the Divine® promotes patronage and philanthropy. As patrons, we seek to inspire everyone to become a collector of art and affirm the special calling of living artists. As philanthropists, we support the mission of the Dominican Order and the volunteer ministries by their novices (1st year students) in Denver who serve the indigent, sick, homeless and elderly at facilities such as Samaritan House and Mullen Home. ✝
